No. 185-P&AR/IT-03/2017

Date: 12.10.2020

NOTIFICATION

West Bengal has been the pioneer State in providing digital and online services to its citizens even at the grass root level. In order to make these services available to every citizen at no cost, the state government has set up Bangla Sahayata Kendras (BSK) all over the state. These Kendras will be within the reach of people in rural as well as urban areas. The entire project of BSK is funded by the state government and no fee will be required to be paid for availing of the online services or for getting any information from government departments.

In view of the above, the resolution of IT & E Department issued vide no.284/1(96)-JS(IT)/IT/P/40/2007 (Vol-XII) Dated 03/11/2015 & order issued vide no 59-P&AR&e-Gov/IT-03/2017 dated 15.2.2018 of PAR & e-Governance Department stand cancelled and the authorization of CSC-SPV to collect & remit GST to the concerned authorities is revoked.

Accordingly, the Government of West Bengal will render all its public and para-statal services through the BSKs henceforth and no service shall be rendered through Common Service Centres (CSCs) / Tathya Mitra Kendras (TMKs) from now onwards.

This order shall take immediate effect.
