

Notice seeking applications for the post of Director, Social Audit Unit, West Bengal

SOCIAL AUDIT OF GOVERNMENT PROGRAMMES:-

Social audit can be described as verification of the development programmes implemented by the Government at the ground level with the active involvement of the primary stakeholder in the process of verification. This is done by comparing official records with actual ground realities with the active participation of the community and the information thus obtained are placed before the public seeking their opinion. Oral testimonies and facts are obtained from the public and those are compared with the official records. In the process, it is examined whether the money was spent properly and has made a difference to people's lives. Subsequently findings of the social audit are brought to the notice of the implementing agencies, who takes appropriate corrective action.

In order to strengthen the process of social audits and to ensure compliance of Audit of Scheme Rules, 2011, the Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India has introduced auditing standards for Social Audit, based on recommendations of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India and Joint Task Force for Social Audits. The Ministry has advised all the States & UTs to adopt the auditing standards for the functioning of social audit units and conduct of social audits.

SOCIAL AUDIT UNIT, WEST BENGAL:-

Government of West Bengal has established independent Social Audit Unit (SAU) to facilitate Gram Sabhas in conducting social audits of works taken up under Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, 2005 and other programmes within the Gram Panchayats. Except Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme, presently social audit is being conducted for the programmes like Pradhan Mantri Awaas Yojana - Gramin (PMAY-G) and National Social Assistance Programme (NSAP).

STRUCTURE OF SOCIAL AUDIT UNIT, WEST BENGAL:-

The Social Audit Unit, West Bengal is headed by the Director, Social Audit, who is the overall in-charge of the Unit conducting social audit across the State. He is assisted by one Social Development Specialist & four Social Audit Experts at State level, who prepare the calendar of social audit, conduct training programmes of social audit personnel of lower levels and co-ordinate with them for smooth conduct of social audit.

At the district level, except the overall monitoring by the District Magistrate, social audit matters are looked into by one Additional District Magistrate. Also there is one Nodal Officer of the rank of Deputy Magistrate, who looks after day-to-day affairs of social audit. At each district, there are Social Audit Resource Persons, the number of which varies from 2 (two) to 10(ten) depending upon the number of Blocks in any district. At Gram-Panchayat level, social audit is conducted by the Village Resource Persons (ten per Gram-Panchayat), who are selected from amongst the stakeholders of the programmes and from outside the concerned Gram Panchayat.

METHODOLOGY OF SOCIAL AUDIT AND EXTENT OF WORK:-

After preparation of calendar of social audit of a year, it is shared in the District Entry Conference organised by the District Magistrate with the district level social audit staff, Programme Officers, programme functionaries, PRI representatives where the social audit calendar is shared with all and roles and responsibilities of all stakeholders are explained in details. This is followed by the Gram Panchayat (GP) level entry conference attended by the GP-level functionaries. Thereafter record verification at GP-level and field visits are made. Subsequently special Gram Sabha meetings are held where the field verification reports are placed for consideration. Once the Gram Sabha meetings in all the Gram Panchayats are conducted, a public hearing is conducted at the Block headquarters in the presence of programme beneficiaries, elected representatives, official functionaries of GP, Block and District levels, mediapersons etc. After this, District Exit Conference is organised by the District Magistrate for discussing the social audit findings and reviewing the follow up on grievances raised.

So far as volume of work is concerned, yearly amount transacted in the programmes for which social audit is conducted at present are as follows:-

Year	Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme	Pradhan Mantri Awaas Yojana - Gramin	National Social Assistance Programme
